Investor	Investor Type	Location	Fund Search Details
Military Mutual Aid Association	Public Pension Fund	South Korea	Military Mutual Aid Association plans to invest $30mn in one commingled direct hedge fund in Q4 2013. It will be targeting long/short credit and event driven funds, focusing on investment opportunities within North America. Going forward, the public pension fund will be looking solely to invest with fund managers that it does not have an existing relationship with.
Conrad Capital Management	Fund of Hedge Funds Manager	US	Conrad Capital Management plans to add one new manager to its portfolio over the coming 12 months. The group invests solely in North American long/short equity managers and has no plans to add any additional hedge fund strategies. It has a preference for smaller hedge fund managers but usually expects managers to have a track record of at least five years.
Osool	Private Sector Pension Fund	Bahrain	Osool plans to commit to two new hedge fund vehicles within the next three to six months, allocating approximately $25mn in total to these investments. One fund will focus on emerging markets, while the other will follow a multi-strategy approach.
