

Women in Hedge Funds: March 2015

Preqin looks at the representation of women in senior roles at hedge funds worldwide. The results highlight that more needs to be done on gender equality.

Key Information

The data in this factsheet is sourced from Preqin's online databases which feature profiles on over 7,500 hedge fund managers, including full employee and contact details.

Fund of hedge funds managers employ women in the greatest proportion of C-level positions, with 11.1% of roles. CTA managers have the worst representation, with only 4.3%.

The Asia-Pacific region, and specifically Hong Kong, is leading gender diversity in senior positions worldwide. Almost 13% of C-level roles at hedge funds in Hong Kong are filled by women.

For more information, please visit www.preqin.com or email info@preqin.com.

Fig. 1: Female Employees in C-Level Positions at Hedge Fund Managers as a Proportion of Total by Firm Type

Source: Preqin

Fig. 2: Female Employees in C-Level Positions at All Single-Manager Hedge Funds as a Proportion of Total by Assets under Management

Source: Preqin

Fig. 3: Female Employees in C-Level Positions at All Single-Manager Hedge Funds by Region

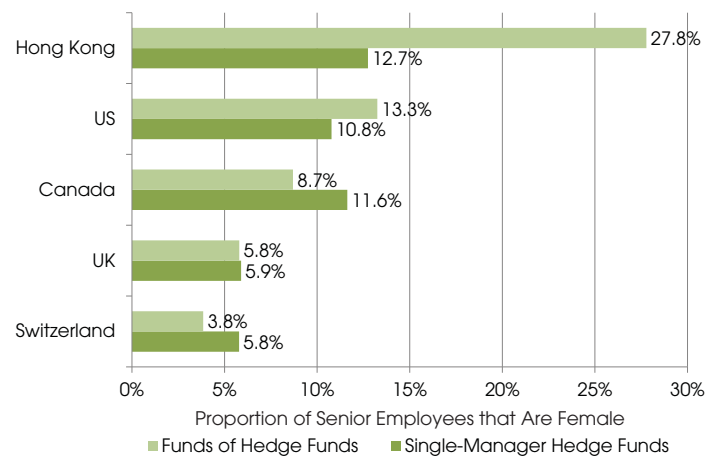

Source: Preqin

Fig. 4: Female Employees in C-Level Positions at All Funds of Hedge Funds as a Proportion of Total by Region

Source: Preqin

Fig. 5: Female Employees in C-Level Positions as a Proportion of Total in Leading Hedge Fund Countries

Source: Preqin